

HOW TO AVOID BACKACHE AND NERVOUSNESS

Told by Mrs. Lynch From Own Experience.

Providence, R. I.—"I was all run down in health, was nervous, had headaches, my back ached all the time. I was tired and had no ambition for anything. I had taken a number of medicines which did me no good. One day I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it had done for women, so I tried it. My nervousness and backache and headaches disappeared. I gained in weight and feel fine, so I can honestly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to any woman who is suffering as I was."—Mrs. ADELIN B. LYNCH, 100 Plain St., Providence, R. I.

Backache and nervousness are symptoms or nature's warnings, which indicate a functional disturbance or an unhealthy condition which often develops into a more serious ailment.

Women in this condition should not continue to drag along without help, but profit by Mrs. Lynch's experience, and try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and for special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co., Lynn, Mass.

HIGH PRAISE FOR AMERICAN FORCE

GEN. MANGIN TALKS OF BRAVERY OF SAMMIES.

Franco-American Artillery Doing Effective Work on Juvigny Plateau.

With the American Army on the Alsace-Vesle Front, Sept. 3.—(Night).—"The American troops are admirable," declared Gen. Charles Mangin, commander of the French army, to which the United States forces are attached in the Juvigny region, when interviewed this afternoon by the International News Service.

"The American troops and America may be proud of the way in which they stormed the Juvigny plateau," Gen. Mangin continued.

"You are satisfied with their performance?" "More than satisfied," emphatically replied the French general. "The troops displayed the same qualities of valor that the first and second divisions evinced when they fought as a part of my army on July 15."

"How about the American artillery? Didn't the gunners do good work in the Juvigny preparations?" the correspondent inquired.

"The American artillery acquitted itself handsomely but also the infantry," the general answered, emphasizing the courage of the doughboys.

"I understand you congratulated the American general staff's work of preparation for the Juvigny attack?" asked the correspondent.

Gen. Mangin nodded acquiescence. "Yes," he declared, "the American general staff displayed exceptional ability in planning the operations which went through according to program."

When questioned about the German report that some of the French tanks were disabled by enemy fire, Gen. Mangin said: "But that was to be expected, and I am more than satisfied with the performance of the tanks. They accomplished much. Being higher than the infantry, the tanks shot into machine gun emplacements and the enemy shook the morale of the enemy to a certain extent."

Then Gen. Mangin pointed to a map of his section of the battle front, showing every opposing enemy division. "You see what the enemy thinks of the battle for the Juvigny plateau by the fact that he is putting his elite troops here and reinforcing them with his best divisions, the First guards, the 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, 31st, 32nd, 33rd, 34th, 35th, 36th, 37th, 38th, 39th, 40th, 41st, 42nd, 43rd,
